- We received 2 snow plowing bids (*Note: both bids will be viewable on our webpage):

  $115/hr from Mike Gardebrecht

  $40 per snowfall from Bear's Tree Service

  A motion to go with Bear's Tree Service was made by Chris J. and seconded by Jay T. Josh A. called for a vote and the motion carried.

- The offer from Bear's Tree Service to do the brush mulching at the club was also discussed and a motion was made by Chris J. and seconded by Paul Thomson. Josh A. called for a vote and the motion carried.

- Labor Day: Jay T. talked about having bingo and a one man 60's & 70's music entertainment for the Sunday after the demolition derby at the park. This has been tabled for now because it's a long way off.

5. New Business:

- Josh read a Thank You card from Aliya Cox for the club's support of her and the Suring Highschool, at the Suring FBLA. The card will be posted on the club's webpage.

- We've scheduled a club workday on December 5, 2026, at 8:00 A.M. to swap out the poles on the rifle range and do any cleanup that's needed. A final look at the property and a final mowing will be done. We've cleaned out the refrigerator for the year. Jim Fonferek donated sandbags to the club and we need to look at the gong to see what condition it's in.
